

Fast Charger, 288W Power Supply With Anderson Powerpole®

Klein Tools Fast Charger is a 288W power supply with APP® Output Connector. This cord quickly charges the Klein Tools 1500W Portable Portable Power Station (Cat. No. KTB1000) to 80-Percent in 3 hours (288W). The charger has the capability to charge the KTB1000 to 80-Percent in only 2.5 hours (408W) when paired with the Wall/Mobile Charger (Cat. No. 29210).

Specifications

|                   |                                                                                                  |                 |                                |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|--------------------------------|
| Type:             | Replacement Part                                                                                 | Application:    | Power Supply                   |
| Special Features: | Fast Charge KTB1000 to 80% in 3 hr or in 2.5 hr with the AC Wall/Mobile Charger (Cat. No. 29210) | Input Port:     | 120 VAC                        |
| Output Port:      | 5V (Output)                                                                                      | Overall Length: | 7.8' (2.4 m)                   |
| Overall Height:   | 1.9 (4.8 cm)                                                                                     | Overall Width:  | 4.2" (10.5 cm)                 |
| Material:         | PC                                                                                               | For Use With:   | KTB1000 Portable Power Station |
| Weight:           | 3.2 lb (1.5 kg)                                                                                  |                 |                                |